BASKETBALL SQUADS ENTER STRETCH RUN

SHARPENING THE SENSES AS THE REAL TEST BEGINS . . . Exactly four weeks remain in the CCAA basketball seasons and the postseason contenders have established themselves as upper-division clubs. The challenge before them to stay the course is to win the rest of their home games and split on the road. For squads aspiring to win the league crown, or defend it in the case of both UC DAVIS teams, the formula is simple: win out. The Aggs' must become road warriors if they are to do so, as six of their remaining eight games are on opposing hardwood. The CAL STATE, SAN BERNARDINO men and the CAL POLY POMONA women, currently the league leaders (CSUSB is tied with UCD), face similar tasks if they are to unseat the Aggies. Two important matchups featuring the men's co-leaders commence the action on Friday. San Bernardino hosts third-place Pomona at Coussoulis Arena and UC Davis takes on fourth-place CAL STATE L.A. at the Eagles' Nest in Los Angeles on Friday, February 4 at 8 p.m. On the women's side, the top four squads take to the road with Pomona at the Inland Empire schools, CAL STATE STANISLAUS (second place) at the Bay Area schools, CHICO STATE and Davis (both tied for third) at the L.A. schools. In other news, lots of spring sports action is scheduled for this week, never mind that there are still seven official weeks of winter remaining. The featured CCAA spring sport event this week is the annual Cal State Stanislaus softball tournament in Modesto Feb. 4-6, as seven other conference clubs in addition to the host Warriors take part in the invitational.

OTHER CCAA NEWS AND NOTES . . . UC Davis drew 7,199 fans, the third highest mark in school history, for its men's basketball game with SONOMA STATE last week. The women's contest drew 3,188 and ranked fifth all-time at UC Davis . . . UC SAN DIEGO has named Earl Edwards as the Director of Athletics, effective March 1, 2000. Edwards has been the Athletics Director at East Stroudsburg.
